To: IFCC Full Member Societies' National Representatives IFCC Affiliate Societies' Representatives

Dear All,

The IFCC Executive Board in 2023 launched a very important new program to develop and disseminate best practice recommendations/guidelines in all areas of clinical laboratory medicine and facilitate implementation in clinical laboratories worldwide, creating the Task Force on Laboratory Medicine Practice Guidelines (TF-LMPG) <https://ifcc.org/executive-board-and-council/eb-task-forces/task-force-on-laboratory-medicine-practice-guidelines-lmpg>.

As a result of term completion, we are now issuing a call for nomination for 1 Member position (1st time of office: January 2027 – December 2029).

IFCC National Societies are invited to nominate experts, sending the documents listed below to the IFCC President (president@ifcc.org) and Ms. Paola Bramati at the IFCC Office (paola.bramati@ifcc.org) by July 10th, 2026.

- A support letter on behalf of the IFCC Society, explaining the nominee's interest in the position and the contribution that we can expect from the candidate;
- A short CV.

The TF Member will be selected from nominations received from IFCC Societies, expertise in areas related to "best practice and preparation of guideline documents" will be considered as an additional criterion for the selection. Nominees that have not been selected can apply to become corresponding members of the Task Force.

Yours sincerely

Prof. Tomris Ozben
IFCC President
